BREATHLESS

THE UNFOLDING SCRIPT FOR 2020, THE FINAL FULL YEAR OF THE DYING 26,000-YEAR GREAT AGE

Lyrics excerpt from the song “Breathless,” by Dio, from their album The Last in Line:

*It's always worse at night, When darkness kills the light...
...you're breathless, ready to burn. Breathless, the circle still turns.*

LIVE AND LEARN

As 9/11 was unfolding, were you aware that it was a false-flag operation employing sophisticated psychological warfare techniques doubling as an in-plain-sight global public ritual? Neither was I. But that was almost 20 years ago, and I've learned a lot since then. In fact, I wrote a book on the topic, The Most Dangerous Book in the World: 9/11 as Mass Ritual.

But at the time almost two decades ago, I was absolutely clueless. I had no idea that what I was watching was anything other than it appeared to be on the surface.

A DIFFERENT TIME

It is true that today many more members of the public are awake to the dark machinations of the Cryptocracy than they were on September 11, 2001. However, it is also true that the events unfolding in 2020 are, at least at casual glance, quite different than those of 9/11 (although there are some striking similarities that we'll examine soon) and they are most certainly of a greater magnitude.

So, one could easily be forgiven for failing to recognize that we are indeed in the midst of yet another global Freemasonic-Luciferian megaritual. And I would suggest that while some of the more alert citizenry may see some of the pieces, we have not grasped the full scope and scale of the dark-occult puzzle being assembled before our eyes. What we are witnessing now is merely a lead-up to The Big Show.

LAND OF ILLUSION

It will be the biggest celebration in the last 26,000 years, and you're invited – as the unwitting entertainment. It's the rich kids' party, and you'll be there—to serve as the butt of the jokes and provide the laughs ... and to die as human sacrifices. The Hunger Games was not a metaphor.

(Right) The Empire State Building decked out as the Eye of Sauron, ostensibly to raise awareness of the critical role of emergency responders and front-line healthcare workers during the pandemic. Stay home. Save lives. Shut up.

Let me put this as gently as I possibly can: The world you think you live in is pure illusion. As a matter of fact, I'll go ahead and call this for what it is right up front, so you can save yourself some time and quit reading now if you're not prepared to take such a proposition seriously.

Here it is: you have had a spell cast upon you. You have been and continue to be subjected to high-level Masonic-Kabbalistic sorcery. You are being brainwashed and mind-controlled, through psychodrama, occult symbols, numerology, sigils and various other means. You are being transmuted into something inhuman—transhuman.

STRONG PRECEDENT

The very idea of a year-long script, integrating multiple false-flag events and occult/ritual elements, is patently absurd, you may be thinking, and I sympathize with you—but that doesn't mean it isn't real.

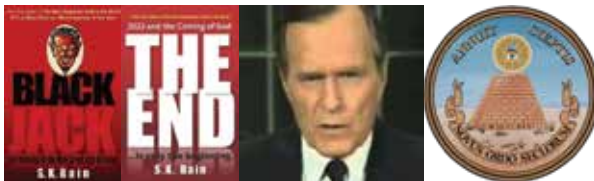

Prove it? I already have. For historical precedent, one need look no further than my second book, Most Dangerous: A True Story, set in 2013, the 50th anniversary of the assassination of John F. Kennedy, or “The Golden Jubilee of the Killing of the King”. Spanning the entirety of that year from January to December, Most Dangerous details the scripted events that unfolded across the nation, and around the globe, in commemoration of one of the Cryptocracy's crowning achievements, the public murder of JFK, which was itself a mass ritual.

SPELLBOUND

A Great Magical Working is afoot, taking place in plain sight, right under our noses. Just like the 9/11 Mass Ritual.

However, I'm not going into a lot of detail here. If you have difficulty interpreting my “shorthand” in the pages below, check out my first two books, mentioned previously, or my third and fourth, Black Jack: The Dawning of the New Great Age of Satan and THE END ... Is only the beginning. My second two books explain precisely what's taking place now, and why. But here's the short of it.

(Second from right) George H.W. Bush in the Oval Office giving one of his famous New World Order speeches. The N.W.O. is N-O-W.

The 26,000-year Great Age (or Great Year, or Cycle of Precession, Precession of the Equinoxes, etc.) is coming to an official close at the very end of 2021. The global elite are timing the full-scale implementation of their technofascist New World Order to the arrival of the New Great Age, and they're dedicating both to Satan.

The hour is not growing late. Time has run out.

THE MAIN COURSE

Let me put this in perspective: 9/11 welcomed the new millennium (1,000 years in duration); 2022 will ring in the New Great Age (26,000 years in duration). When little Tommy turns 10 and there's cake out by the kiddie pool, that's fun. But when Grandpa turns 100 and all the kids, grandkids and great grandkids show up to celebrate his century mark on this planet, now that's a party.

As bad as 2020 has been thus far, the shartnado is just spinning up. Neither this year, nor next, are going to get any better. Things will only get worse, much worse. The Cryptocracy is going for broke. They are ushering in the New Great Age of Satan.

9/11 was the appetizer. You're about to get a seven-course meal of hot tyranny.

If you think Donald Trump is the real enemy, you're in more trouble than you can possibly imagine. He's just the host of the show. We are the contestants.

NON-TRADITIONAL VALUES

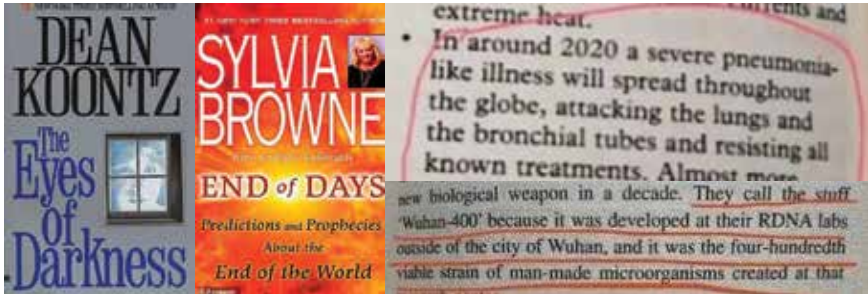

If you aren't already aware of this fact, dark humor, most especially killing for fun, is one of the trademarks of the Cryptocracy. Mockery is another, most especially mocking us to our faces. Mocking the citizenry in plain sight right after murdering a whole slew of them—well, that's just pure heaven.

The idea of killing people to gain personal advantage—much less as human sacrifices or simply for entertainment—is foreign to most of us, but not to the controlling global elite. These acts are aligned with their thoroughly-corrupt core values. Once again I'll say that The Hunger Games was not a metaphor.

OFF TO THE RACES

The January emergence of the Wuhan-400 Problem-Reaction-Solution COVID-19 Plannedemic marked the beginning of what is already proving to be a very long and eventful 2020.

Dean Koontz's 1981 The Eyes of Darkness and Sylvia Browne's 2008 End of Days both contain what some believe to be predictive references to COVID19.

It's the Year of the Bat-Soup Coronavirus, and where was Kobe "The Annual Illuminati Celebrity Sacrifice" Bryant buried? Corona del Mar, located on the infamous 33rd parallel (if you're not familiar with the deep lore around this, you should be). Kobe and his daughter were among those killed in a fiery helicopter crash on January 26th—Google "Satan-

Wu-Wu Conspiracy Theories

Where were the 2019 Military World Games held? In Wuhan, China, of course, mere months before the COVID-19 global pandemic was unleashed on the entire world from there. Competing conspiracy theories have claimed that both China and the U.S. used the games to intentionally deploy a man-modified bat virus.

Look at that cute little mascot, the head of which is based on a Chinese sturgeon (go figure), for the Wuhan 2019 World Military Games holding the Torch of Illumination.

The opening ceremony for the games, which features an extravaganza entitled “Torch of Peace” (translated from Illuminati-speak as “the torching of peace”), was held on October 18th, which, quite by coincidence I’m sure, was the date of Event 201, a high-level pandemic tabletop exercise held in New York, the U.S. city that ended up becoming the epicenter of the COVID-19 pandemic in America. Imagine that. The Bill and Melinda Gates Let’s-Vaccinate-the-Whole-World-To-Death Foundation was one of the three main partners for the event. Imagine that.

ic Revels” and “Grand Climax”—a short distance from the Staples Center, located at 1111 S. Figueroa St. (The number “1111” is radioactive in terms of its occult/secret-society valence, as I explain in Black Jack. Don’t believe me? Call the White House at 202-456-1111 and ask them).

For those who may not know, the Staples Center is the home of the Los Angeles Lakers, the team Bryant had played for his entire 20-year career, and he died mere hours before the arena, which is celebrating its 20th anniversary, hosted the 2020 Grammy Awards. Don’t even think “coincidence” or I’ll kick you out of here.

What does the very first of the 2020 “America the Beautiful” quarters released feature? Bats, of course.

(Left) Predictive programming? Shown here is a frame from a 2016 Comedy Central cartoon featuring an animated Kobe Bryant in a helicopter crash, climbing out of the wreckage holding two trophies that look quite similar to the Twin Pillars of Freemasonry, pictured center. The title of this particular episode: “End of Days”. (Right) Actual news headline from Reuters: “Special Report: Former Labradoodle breeder tapped to lead U.S. pandemic task force”. Don’t laugh—the joke’s on us.

The chief complaint of those suffering from severe COVID19 symptoms: “I can’t breathe”. The chief complaint of the hundreds of millions of people worldwide forced to wear masks as a result of COVID19: “I can’t breathe”.

So, you have to understand that when George Floyd repeatedly uttered those same words, “I can’t breathe”, during his 8-minute YouTube’d public execution, this was in keeping with the established Theme/Meme of the Year, part of the script for 2020.

Does this then mean that George Floyd’s death was faked, as various conspiracy theories assert? Sure, the Cryptocracy could have easily hoaxed this killing, just as they have regularly staged various hoaxes in the past for various reasons, sometimes for fun and sometimes just because they can.

But why would they have faked George Floyd's death? He was nobody. No, more than likely they did exactly what it appears they did—orchestrated his on-camera killing. This was not simply another example of excessive use of force, or another unjustified police killing of a black man, but rather an Illuminati snuff film.

George Floyd's public killing was the trigger event, the spark that ignited a racially-charged conflagration across the land and around the globe—a conflagration fueled by the intentional stoking of racial divisions through a whole series of manipulated events over the past decade. Pre- and post-Trayvon Martin, we've been headed, herded, down this path for a long time.

Okay gang, what can we do to ignite race riots across America in 2020?

I know, sir! Let's have a white police officer kill a black man on camera— and take his time doing it!

Brilliant! Great idea!

“I can't breathe” is an inside joke, a deadly joke being played on all of us.

(Left) George Floyd in the lobby of the night club where both he and Derek Chauvin worked security, standing next to a Corona Light sign. (Right) Kobe Bryant wearing an “I Can't Breathe” t-shirt following the 2014 asphyxiation of Eric Garner by police. Bryant arranged for the Lakers to wear these shirts during pregame warmups and while on the bench throughout the game. Kobe “I Can't Breathe” Bryant.

What's in a Name? Derek Chauvin Edition

Remember this: anyone, anywhere, anytime can be coerced, or mind-controlled through means ranging from simple suggestion to brainwashing to psychotropic drugs.

In case you've been living on Mars for the past few months, that's George Floyd's assassin, Derek Chauvin, pictured above; and, yes, that's "chauvin" as in "chauvinist" (same root word, look it up), "chauvinist pig", in particular, with the intended reference being "pig" as in "cop". Among its other definitions, chauvinism can also be described as "an irrational belief in the superiority or dominance of one's own group or people"; Derek derives from an old Germanic name meaning "people-ruler". (The Cryptocracy is reaaally into name games, this is just one instance of many.)

"Officer Racist Cop" would have been a little too obvious, don'tcha think?

QUICK QUIZ: FILL IN THE BLANK

(Center) George Floyd and Stephen Jackson.

1. On 9/11, the ____ Towers were both struck by large jet aircraft (don't start with the no-planes conspiracy theories).
2. George Floyd's home at the time of his murder was Minneapolis, Minnesota, one of the ____ Cities.
3. George Floyd grew up with NBA player Stephen Jackson, who Floyd frequently referred to as his ____, a fact often noted by Jackson in press interviews following the killing.

Stumped? See "The Twin Pillars of Freemasonry." There's a whole chapter on this subject in 9/11 as Mass Ritual.

The point? Americans still haven't come to terms with the fact that both Twin Towers and Building 7, the Salomon Brothers Building (or Sa-lomon's Temple), were intentionally imploded—brought down into their own footprints—even though it happened right before their very eyes and looked exactly like classic controlled demolition (yes, I know about the nano-thermite).

Similarly, America is currently in the process of being brought to its knees by controlled demolition. This is exactly how it happens in other countries, this is precisely what it looks like when done elsewhere, and yet we refuse to believe that it's happening here. It is being done right under our noses, in plain sight, just like on September 11th, 2001—and, just like on 9/11, they're mocking us to our faces while they do it.

(Left) The official caption for this photo read, "Garbed in African scarves, House Speaker Nancy Pelosi and Senate minority leader Chuck Schumer led two dozen other Democrat lawmakers in Congress' Emancipation Hall in eight minutes and 46 seconds of silent kneeling to mark the length of time a police officer knelt on top of Floyd's neck." Interesting. According to the official account of the September 11, 2001 terror attacks, Muslim hijackers slammed United Airlines Flight 11 into the northern façade of the North Tower of the World Trade Center at exactly 8:46 a.m. But I'm sure that's just a coincidence.

ABRUPT REVERSAL

Our media-driven collective experience of George Floyd's horrific death and the resulting aftermath? Trauma-based mass mind control.

The entire nation, the world even, stopped on a dime and went from straight from two months of forced lockdown to marching in the streets by the tens of thousands, shoulder-to-shoulder, social distancing be damned.

This abrupt reversal greatly amplified the psychological shock of Floyd's death and too-many- scenes-to- count of American cities being burned and looted. Overnight, the empty streets of the COVID pandemic were filled with angry mobs. (Say, where'd all those pallets of bricks come from?)

It was psychological warfare on a global scale.

A DIRE PROGNOSIS

There, there, I know ... you're upset about having to stay inside and having to wear a mask. You're upset about the shortage of hamburger meat. You're upset about George Floyd. Well, unfortunately for us all, it's only going to get worse. A lot worse. By design.

The type of tyranny that will be imposed on America and the world will only be possible after the global elite instill us with greater fear and uncertainty, and further weaken our resolve.

This year we've already been treated to a global pandemic, locust plagues of Biblical proportions, food shortages, murder hornets, circumstances favorable to worldwide famine and drought, and social unrest around the globe. What's next on the menu? Asteroids? Aliens? Hillary as President?

Whatever happens, it'll most likely be more than one thing simultaneously, just like the one-two combo of COVID19 and George Floyd. Keep in mind, too, that the full impact of both the virus and the unrest have yet to play out: there will continued economic upheaval and mass protests. We're not even out of the woods with these twin calamities, and the global elite are about to set the whole forest on fire.

They are going to beat, burn, starve and humiliate us into a near cata-tonic state, and then we are going to beg them to save us from whatever horrid agents of change they've engineered to accomplish their evil purposes. Take all our freedoms, just keep us safe.

What do we do about all this? Do? Are you joking? There's nothing we can do. The same massive domestic-surveillance industry/infrastructure that's been built with our tax dollars from sea-to-shining-sea since 9/11, ostensibly to prevent the next mass terror attack but which somehow apparently failed to detect the national mobilization of Antifa in the wake of George Floyd's death, is now aimed directly at We the People. The NSA-CIA-Luciferians know what we're going to do before we do.

ALL DONE HERE?

So, you think that's it? You're up to speed? Good to go? We're not done yet. The sorcery continues...

As I explain in excruciating detail in Black Jack: The Dawning of the New Great Age of Satan, Washington, DC, is an enormous star map, a giant clock, a massive calendar-in-stone.

The White House sits at the very center of the 10-mile square DC layout and the center of the DC Star Map. Within the latter, the location of the White House corresponds to the Great Celestial Cross, the location in the heavens where the plane of the ecliptic (the observed path of the sun through the sky) intersects the Galactic Equator, the imaginary mid-line of the Milky Way Galaxy.

This intersection is located just a few degrees from Galactic Center, which in the DC Star Map is symbolically represented by a dome, the dome of the U.S. Capitol.

The end of the current Great Age is signified by the alignment of the sun—the Winter Solstice sun, to be exact—with the Great Celestial Cross.

This alignment occurs during a roughly 45-year window that opened circa 1976, the bicentennial year of America, and closes at the very end of 2021. (Pop quiz: Donald J. Trump is the ___th President of the United States.)

For the purposes of our current discussion, the DC Star Map is read left-to-right/west-to-east. The White House is located at the Great Celestial Cross. The dying Great Age breathes its last gasp at the end of 2021, with the year 2022 marking the dawning of the New Great Age (of Satan).

So, of all the places in the entire United States, don't you find it more than a little curious that the block to the immediate east of the White House, upon which the U.S. Treasury is located, bears the zip code 20220? I thought you might.

A WALK IN THE PARK

To the immediate north of the White House lies Lafayette Square, which became a flash/focal point of recent protests. The entire world watched, captivated, spellbound, as protestors filled the park, hurling their

Fill in the Blank: Triple Black Jack

1. Jackie Kennedy's father's nickname: _____.
2. The name of the riderless horse in JFK's funeral: _____ (taken from the nickname of a famous U.S. general).
3. The name of a horse, a different horse, owned by Jackie: _____ (named after her father).

demands and shouting their insults at the President—who, though he has since insisted that he was merely performing an inspection of the facility on that particular occasion, in one instance apparently sought refuge from the angry mob in an underground command bunker beneath the White House. But that’s beside the point.

The Great Celestial Cross is the location where the sun and earth enter into alignment marking the end of one Great Age and the start of another. The Alpha-and-Omega point.

The White House is the “house of the rising sun” (of the New Great Age). Here, X literally marks the spot, as Pennsylvania and New York Avenues intersect at that very location—or would, if they were extended through that area.

Reiterating that point from an occult-astrological perspective, the design of Lafayette Square is itself a symbol, a sigil to be precise. It combines the ancient Planetary Seal of the Sun (yes, I realize the sun is not a planet—I didn’t invent this term) with the astrological symbol for Earth, and rests upon the Great Cross. (When you have time, search “the Fayette factor.”)

When Donald Trump—the current occupant of the House of the Rising Sun, the Sun King, the High Priest of Amaruca—ceremonially strode across the square with the eyes of the world upon him, this was no mere casual stroll. The collective consciousness of humanity was focused intently upon this giant sigil— as it was focused upon the massive Twin Towers of Freemasonry and the super-sized Pentagon on 9/11—energizing it, activating it within the psyche of the masses and perhaps in unseen realms.

We were all unwittingly engaged in mass participatory ritual. The Lafayette Square sigil, situated at the Great Cross and signifying alignment, union, completion—in the heart of the DC Star Map, in the center of the most powerful city the world has ever known, at the very moment that the dying Great Age is taking its last breaths, this was a Galactic Mass Ritual. And all we saw was Trump talking a walk in the park.

THE FINAL TRUMP OF THE APOCALYPSE

On the morning of 9/11, as scores of Americans were dying, President George W. Bush sat in a classroom in Sarasota, Florida (where his brother Jeb was governor), listening to children recite the words of The Pet Goat. As I explain in 9/11 as Mass Ritual, this was no run-of-the-mill photo op for the President—W. was acting as high priest, presiding over a black mass, complete with human sacrifices and chanting children.

As Trump lumbered across Lafayette Square, he was headed to historic St. John's Episcopal Church, the "Church of Presidents". During the previous evening's protests, a fire had been set in the nursery of the church, but thankfully was quickly contained and did little damage.

(Left) Trump holding the Bible aloft in front of St. John's. (Right) George Floyd was murdered on May 25th, 5/25. Note the address of the church building.

With his visit to St. John's, Trump, however, was not simply making a symbolic gesture to the protestors and everyone else that such acts would not be tolerated. No, there was much deeper symbolism at work.

St. John's is named after John of Patmos, John the Revelator, author of the Biblical "Book of Revelation." (And if I need to elaborate on that point for you, you've most likely wasted your time reading all this, but I'll expound upon it nonetheless.)

The message: We are living in the Apocalypse, the Revealing. This is time of the Alpha and the Omega.

(Right) Question: can you artificially inflate the size of a horde of locusts?

America burns. Cities around the world are ablaze. A global pandemic rages on. The Middle East is plagued by unnaturally large swarms of locusts. The End of the Age, the End of Days, is upon us, and the leader of the Free World, billionaire-populist-savior, former-and-current reality television host Donald J. Trump, the Biblical "final trump" personified, invokes Revelation before all of humanity. Oh, snap.

Postscript: And just to drive the point home perhaps, the very next day President Trump toured the Saint John—John Paul II, that is—National Shrine in Washington, DC. Incidentally, the shrine is sponsored by the District of Columbia State Council of the Knights of Columbus. Oh and by the way, the Knights of Columbus is headquartered and was founded in New Haven, Connecticut, same as The Brotherhood of Death, aka, The Order of Skull & Bones.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS
District of Columbia State Council

(Left) The self-appointed mayor of C.H.A.Z. (Capitol Hill Autonomous Zone). You get what you ask for.

What's in a Name? Capitol Hill Edition

As previously noted, the U.S. Capitol, its dome specifically, represents Galactic Center—also symbolized as a womb, i.e., the Womb of the Great Mother.

The U.S. Capitol, as you're probably aware, is located on Capitol Hill in Washington, DC, and is the literal and figurative heart of our government and our nation. Unfortunately, our nation's capital has long been taken over and occupied by foreign interests, in particular representatives of multinational corporations and lending institutions and minions of ultra-powerful European bloodline nobility. And the Muslim Brotherhood. And China.

So, given the fact that Capitol Hill in Washington, DC, is occupied by worthless, sniveling usurpers, and has been for decades, if you don't almost immediately comprehend the dark humor involved with this latest name game, I feel sorry for you.

As Soros-funded, brainwashed Marxist-wannabee dipsticks pranced around on Lafayette Square on the East Coast, foaming at the mouth as they hurled largely unintelligible insults at Park Police and National Guardsmen decked out in riot gear, their counterparts on the West Coast decided (or did they?), of all the places in the entire United States, to seize and occupy the Capitol Hill neighborhood in Seattle, Washington. For those of you who may be a little slow on the uptake, again, that's Capitol Hill in Washington state, not Washington DC.

Postscript: The dark reality that completely escapes the professional protester class—that they miss entirely fuming in their parents' dimly lit basements between fits of hysterics—is that by wallowing in their endless university-bred ignorance they have allowed themselves to be transformed into the shock troops of the Luciferian elite. If the objective is to get God out of the public square and undermine Christianity and traditional values, and it is, you don't take its proponents head on. Engage in a systemic, multigenerational campaign to brand the nuclear family and Christianity—even Christ himself—as politically incorrect, racist even, and sit back and let the leftist mob do the work for you. Kill white Jesus.

ALL IN THE ROYAL FAMILY

The word corona, which as we well know by now is the Official Theme of the Year, was adopted directly from the Latin for crown.

Interestingly, 2020 started off with Prince Harry and his wife announcing in January that they would be stepping back as senior members of the royal family and splitting their time between the UK and North America.

Unfortunately, with the onset of the global pandemic, this plan hasn't worked out so well for poor Harry, who has been locked down in Tyler Perry's $17.8 million Los Angeles mansion, separated from his entire family by the Atlantic Ocean—which was reportedly of particular difficulty for him when his father, Prince Charles, was diagnosed with COVID19 in March.

Now, before I get accused of going out on a limb here and engaging in excessive and unfounded speculation as to the possibility of the British royal family's involvement, willing or otherwise, in the 2020 Crown Royal Mega-Ritual, let me remind the reader that such is not without precedent.

April 21, 2016, marked Queen Elizabeth II's 90th birthday. Purple, as we all know, is historically the color of royalty, and who should die unexpectedly that very same day other than "the Purple One", Prince.

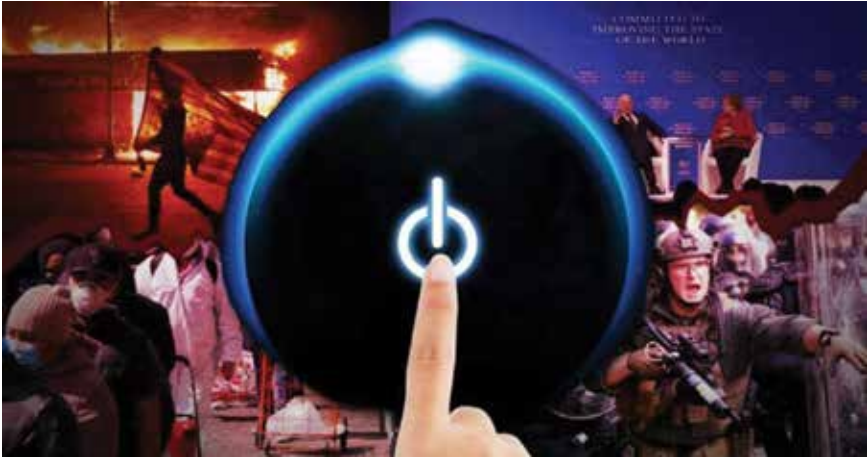

Get it? Prince. Oh, never mind.

THE GREAT RESET

In the wake of COVID19, the U.S. Treasury is printing funny money at record rates—which as we know from history always leads to hyper-inflation and dramatic devaluation of the currency—and the Fed is buying up everything in sight. The too-big-to-fail major banks are sitting on over a quadrillion dollars' worth of derivatives—if the Cryptocracy decides to implode this debt bubble, an economic weapon-of-mass-destruction the likes of which the world has never seen, everything goes down with it.

Come to think of it, that would be an ideal way to take down the global economy and set the stage for a Hot New World Tyranny.

The World Economic Forum has recently introduced The Great Reset initiative, targeted for 2021, and while it remains to be seen what effect this might have on the global economy, it is worth recalling that the Reset of the Great Age occurs at the end of the same year, which, come to think of it, is next year.

HURRY IT UP, ALREADY

Okay, given that I didn't set out to write another book here, I'm going to cover the remainder of the relevant items in very short order.

Further evidence that we are, in fact, in the middle of a year-long series of orchestrated events that constitute the Cryptocracy's diabolical script for 2020:

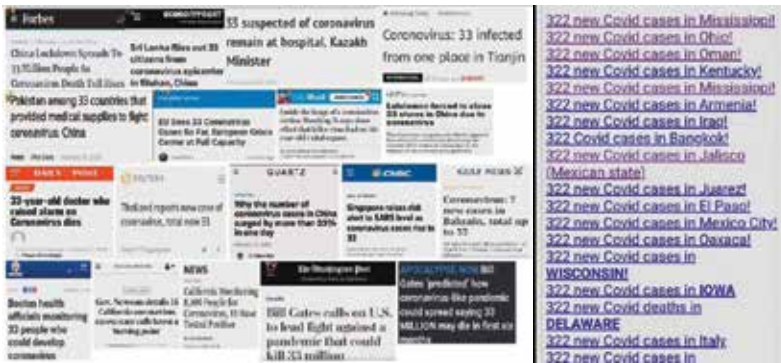

- Looking backward first, let's consider the unprecedented rash of resignations by Fortune 500 (and other) CEOs in 2019. When the rats start jumping ship en masse, that's never a good sign.
- May 2020: Reboot of the 2012 Sandy Hook massacre (recall that the author of The Hunger Games trilogy lived in Sandy Hook), as a college student from Sandy Hook who apparently lived on the same street as Adam Lanza, the alleged perpetrator of the 2012 killings, goes on a murder spree in the northeastern U.S.

- June 2020: Industrial sabotage: Per Michael Hoffman, author of Secret Societies and Psychological Warfare, there are almost always acts of industrial sabotage integrated into major false-flag operations. This was particularly true during the Unabomber’s alleged streak of deadly mailings, as well as in 2013 during the Golden Jubilee of the Killing of the King (hint: Boston Marathon, Marathon Oil). This June brought massive coordinated cyberattacks against Internet and telecom giants Facebook, Instagram, Fortnite, T-Mobile and Comcast.

Earlier in the year, Amazon.com, which many Americans came to depend upon during the pandemic, lost a major warehouse that burned like a gasoline-soaked rag. Prior to this, two manufacturing facilities, one in Mexico and another in the U.S., that synthesized compounds necessary to the production of President Trump’s COVID19 miracle drug, Hydroxychloroquine, suffered major fires. (It was later reported that Trump family members had financial interests in at least one Hydroxychloroquine company, but who knows if that’s even true.)

- Year-to-date: The numbers 33 and 322 (the latter of which, for the one or two people who may not know this already, is the numerical identifier associated with Yale secret society Skull & Bones ... and I dearly hope no one needs this tidbit, but 33 = Freemasonry) have both appeared with incredible frequency in the global media in connection to COVID19 stories. At this point, calling this an extreme statistical improbability would be the understatement of the century.

On a related note, there seem to be COVID-related search results for practically any number you type into a search engine, potentially leading to the conclusion that A.I. bots are authoring fake news stories by the hundreds of thousands. But I ain't got time to prove that.

- Author's note: I've said a lot about the hard left, and very little about the hard right. Why?

Because it's the left's turn on stage. We know the right, they've had their turn. We also know, or should, that to a considerable degree, both extremes have been fueled and nurtured by the very intentional divide-and-conquer strategy employed at all levels of society by the ruling elite. So get off my butt, I've hammered the hard right elsewhere.

In one of the most alarming developments of the entire George Floyd episode, a new species of humanity spontaneously emerged, Homo sapiens patheticus, a bizarre variety of spineless, self-flagellating Cracker that everyone, including hard-core members of Antifa, immediately hated and which will hopefully go the way of the Dodo bird in the near future. In the event that you witness an adult of the species instructing their progeny to self-flagellate, please call your local Child Protective Services immediately.

R.I.P. 2020:

Among the innocent victims of the 2020 carnage thus far:

*My God, is that a, a ... noose?
Yes, it's the noose America hung itself with.
Thanks, Bubba.*

PARTING THOUGHTS: THE BORING STUFF

COVID19 has not killed globalism, as many have hoped that it might, nor will it. The pandemic is a self-inflicted wound, necessary to create the pre-conditions for establishing a hyper-authoritarian New World Order on Crack.

As to how the virus may have impacted China's ascendancy and their ambition to replace the United States as the world's dominant superpower, I'm not qualified to speculate. I will say, however, that many very smart people believe, with good evidence, that China is being groomed by the global elite to replace the United States as the world's leading superpower in the next decade or so.

True, we do still have "American ingenuity" in our favor, but this has been countered, effectively neutralized, by a paralyzing, all-permeating political correctness which has allowed China to harvest our most sensitive military and industrial secrets on a mass scale, an almost unimaginable scale, for decades.

What few sources of information they cannot gain direct access to, they fill in the gaps through massive state-run data-integration centers. They voraciously gather information from every possible source, and weave it all together.

China is ahead of the United States in the development of Artificial Intelligence and 5G implementation. They have been to the moon much more recently than we have (don't start with the "we never went to the moon" business).

As we survey the circumstances we currently find ourselves in, we should ask some very hard questions, such as:

- When in the history of the world have the global elite ever engineered the framework for the step-by-step methodical controlled demolition of a nation's economy and not lit the fuse to set off the charges and reap the enormous benefits? (See Confessions of an Economic Hitman by John Perkins.)
- America has the strongest military on the planet, but how quickly would it hollow out due to major funding shortfalls if the nation's economy, and/or the global economy, imploded? (For a relevant case study, research what happened to the Department of Defense and our nation's armed services during the eight years of the Obama administration.)

The truth is that America's military has been the Anglo-Saxon global oligarchy's mercenary force for over 200 years. Will they really retire the greatest warfighting machine the world has ever known? That's hard to imagine. Then again, two months ago it was hard to imagine people arguing to "Defund the Police" being taken seriously, so who knows.

- America has been the greatest nation on earth for decades, but we are steadily slipping downwards in performance across a broad range of socio-economic measures. Why for the past twenty years has the American government under both parties allowed the bulk of our manufacturing capacity to be shifted overseas? Why has our nation's infrastructure been allowed to continually erode?

"We are shifting to an information-based economy," is the typical reply. With no disrespect to Facebook, Google and Uber, we can't even make our own antibiotics any more. We get 80% of them from China, and another 15 or so percent from India—which gets their supply from ... China.

"Well, we're also shifting to a service-industry economy," comes the inevitable retort. Yes, and many of those jobs just disappeared like a fart in the wind, never to return, during COVID19.

The big banks and investment houses keep getting bigger and richer, while our manufacturing sector—despite President Trump's apparent best deal-cuttin' to bring factory jobs back home— continues to struggle, especially during COVID19. Even before the pandemic, the U.S. was still mired in the world's first "jobless recovery".

Does this sound like America is being governed, from within or without, with a strategy designed to protect the middle class and Make America Great Again? Or does all of this start to become familiar as the easily-recognizable sound of a teat being sucked dry?

Much of China looks like the future promised to us by The Jetsons. Much of America looks like the sets of John Carpenter's 1981 science-fiction action film, Escape from New York, which, incidentally, many people are trying to do at this very moment now that they've realized Governor Andrew Nipple-Ring(?) Cuomo won't come to their rescue in time of crisis. Pandemic? Put the infected senior citizens in with the general nursing home population. Riots? Let 'em burn and pillage.

If the global elite are by some stretch of the imagination not switching horses from the U.S. to the CHICOMMs, then perhaps at some point America will get her long-overdue facelift and the promise to Make America Great Again will be fulfilled.

But from our vantage point mid-way through 2020, it's increasingly looking like America could well be the designated Sacrificial Cow to be slaughtered in honor of the Dawning of the New Great Age of Satan.

At the breath of God they perish; at the blast of his anger they are no more.
